PA in Manchester, UK

Directions by car/taxi

By car

Manchester's Ring Road is currently undergoing major road-works and all routes into the city centre change as this work progresses. If you are driving into the office you should consult AA AutoRoute for up-to-date directions.

From the airport

The best route from the airport is by taxi. Taxi ranks can be found outside the main entrance of the terminals. The trip will take approximately 25-45 minutes dependant on the time of day. The approximate distance is 11 miles and costs approximately £20.

Directions by public transport

From the airport

There are train and coach links from the airport. These are clearly signposted according to which terminal you arrive at. For up-to-date information and timetables contact the Greater Manchester Passenger Transport Executive which gives local bus and rail information from 8am to 8pm seven days a week on +44 161 228 7811 or access the Manchester Airport Web site at www.manairport.co.uk

From the train station

Trains from the south arrive at Piccadilly Station. This is a 10-15 minute brisk walk or 10 minutes in a taxi which costs approximately £7. By foot: exit through main doors of the station and walk down the main road (Station Approach) directly in front of you. Station Approach then becomes Piccadilly. Walk along Piccadilly on the right-hand side until you reach Debenhams store. Turn left down the side of Primark store into Fountain Street. Walk down Fountain Street for approximately two minutes and turn left onto York Street. Colwyn Chambers is on the left hand side.

Office security

The office is open 8.00am to 5.30pm Monday to Friday and a commissionaire is present during these hours. If you need to enter the office out of hours this must be prearranged with the Manchester administrative staff on the number above, to arrange for keys and security codes to be given to gain access.
